GAJA® PIEVE SANTA RESTITUTA.

Gaja family in 1994 acquired this estate. The “white,” rocky soils of this area, in the southwest subzone of the Brunello di Montalcino appellation, were abandoned long ago by the sharecropper mezzadri farmers. But while other crops struggled in the rugged, nutrient-poor terrain, it has proven ideal for the cultivation of grapes destined to become fine wine.

Ornellaia is a legend and it is considered one of Italy's leading Bordeaux-style red wines. While Ornellaia is the maximum expression of Bolgheri and its Bordeaux blends, Masseto represents the ultimate expression of a single vineyard planted with a single variety.

GAJA® CA' MARCANDA.

After his native Piedmont, Angelo Gaja was compelled to risk starting something new – all at a time in life when most would have rested on their laurels. Inexorably drawn by a unique piece of land and the promise of his dream – to bring his winemaking expertise to Maremma – Angelo made the long drive from Barbaresco to Bolgheri.

Germany Německo

At Van Volxem, the rather small viticulture of the Saar, is limited predominantly to south-facing slate slopes. This unique combination of barren, mineralrich, fertile, slate soils and the warmth of the steep slopes, is so important to the aroma formation of the Riesling. Arno Luik from Stern described this unusual situation on the steep slopes of Van Volxem as "a climatic border area where heaven and hell are close together."
